

COMMUNICATION: Vocabulary Matching

___ Interaction

___ Source

___ Message

___ Receiver

___ Decoding

___ Feedback

___ Context

___ Perception

___ Active Listening

___ Passive Listening

A. Process of translating the message into the thoughts or feelings communicated

B. Response to a message that the receiver sends to the source

C. Individual who analyzes and interprets message

D. Type of listening that does not require any special effort. An individual that listens in this way may only be able to recall major points of the message.

E. Exchange of communication that includes communicators taking turns sending and receiving messages.

F. Circumstances or situations where communication occurs.

G. Type of listening that requires an individual to fully concentrate, understand, and be able to respond.

H. Stimulus produced by source.

I. Process of selecting, organizing, and interpreting information in order to give personal meaning to communication received.

J. Creator of messages.