

CRITICAL THINKING: Vocabulary Matching

___ Empirical

___ Analyze

___ Bias

___ Justify

___ Evaluation

___ Rational

___ Inference

___ Ambiguous

___ Theory

___ Assumption

- A. Something that has two or more possible meanings
- B. A statement accepted or supposed as true without proof or demonstration
- C. To judge or determine the worth or quality of something
- D. A step of the mind; an intellectual act by which one concludes that something is so in light of something else
- E. A formulation of apparent relationships of certain observed phenomena that has been verified to some degree
- F. Something that conforms to principles of good reasoning, is sensible, shows good judgement, is consistent, logical, and relevant
- G. Based on experiment, observation, or experience rather than on theory or meaning
- H. The act of showing a belief, opinion, action, or policy to be in line with reason and evidence
- I. To break up a whole into its parts, to examine in detail so as to determine the nature of an issue or situation
- J. A mental leaning or inclination